

Eta Theta Chapter, Brooklyn College
Dr. Andrea Nottingham, President

Dear Candidate:

Looking for a way to enhance your professional status?

Kappa Delta Pi is an international honor society in Education. Our faculty advisor has perused your transcript and because of your high level of academic excellence, you are eligible to join Kappa's Eta Theta Chapter, at Brooklyn College. This year, we will hold our initiation ceremony virtually, in the Spring of 2022. We hope you will be a part of this amazing opportunity, and celebrate amongst your family and friends.

Why join Kappa?

- Be part of a group of high achieving teachers and scholars
- Receive member publications and access to the digital resources catalog
- Receive member discounts
- Receive access to KDP webinars
- Be eligible for KDP student scholarships and teacher classroom grants
- Proudly add this organization to your resume
- Have your name appear on a special list of Kappa scholars in the commencement book at graduation
- Attend conferences in and around the city and country
- Network with highly motivated, creative and dedicated educators in person and on-line
- Take advantage of the Job Search Academy

What Eta Theta chapter does:

- Provides a read-aloud and book give-away to students in Brooklyn and Queens and sends books to children and educational institutions in other countries through our Literacy Alive! Project.
- Provides professional development sessions.
- Provides membership support via mentorship, workshops, volunteerism, convention support etc.
- Our chapter has won numerous national awards including the Achieving Chapter Excellence (ACE) award for two consecutive biennial periods, and many of our Board members have received various national honors over the years.

How To Apply:

- REVIEW the membership criteria in the application link. You MUST meet the GPA and credit requirements for membership.
