Brooklyn
College

WHY BROOKLYN?

(Besides our beautiful campus in NYC's coolest borough...)

Prestigious (Affordable) Degrees + Prominent

Professors: Our faculty (your future mentors) are the top scholars in their fields.

Great Salaries + Low (to No) Debt: We rank #9 among colleges nationwide for grads who quickly climb the socio-economic ladder and our students complete their degrees with 1/3 the debt of the average American college student.

Small College Feel + Big City Options: Our close community of professors, staff, and counselors offer personal guidance while our internship programs allow real-life job exposure to almost any career path in NYC.

Flexibility + Choices: You have busy lives and lots of interests, so we offer hundreds of majors and minors with classes both online and in person at convenient times.

Accelerated Pre-Professional Programs: Our renowned pre-med, pre-law, and pre-engineering preparation is why many BC students pursue advanced degrees and get into the country's top medical, law, and engineering schools.

A silhouette of a man is shown from the side, seated and playing a grand piano. The scene is set indoors, with large windows in the background. Through the windows, a prominent brick building with a tall, ornate tower topped by a golden dome is visible, set against a clear sky. The overall mood is contemplative and artistic.

YOU + BROOKLYN =
ALL IN FOR SUCCESS

ALL IN FOR BIG DISCOVERIES

Everyone at Brooklyn College is here to do something big—to do more, to discover more, to become more—so you can actually get out into the world and do something with what you’ve learned.

---

Discover your passion by getting deep into one of hundreds of academic programs in our five schools:

Business, Education, Humanities and Social Sciences, Natural and Behavioral Sciences, and Visual, Media and Performing Arts.

Push big ideas further through faculty-guided research.

You'll get out into the field to see how things work, and how they can work better by getting involved with the cultural, business, and governmental institutions of New York City and beyond.

Find new connections with the people on campus who know the material better than anybody else. Your professors are here to help you. Always. So when you're looking for inspiration or guidance, expertise or understanding, opportunities to explore further or notes on what to do next, just ask. That's what they're here for. But don't be surprised if they ask you first.

THE BROOKLYN COLLEGE FACULTY IS COMMITTED TO HELP YOU BECOME THE PROFESSIONAL YOU ASPIRE TO BE.

ALL IN FOR MAKING CONNECTIONS

When you become a student at Brooklyn College, you study with some of the top specialists in their fields. Our faculty hail from all over the world and guarantee you a truly global education.

Your professor could be a British author with more than 170 plays and 16 novels to their name or a Venezuelan chemist researching the use of metal-based drugs in the fight against cancer and malaria. You could work with them installing storm sensors across Jamaica Bay or creating a marketing plan for a New York Fashion Week show.

When you declare a major, our professors will help steer you in the right direction. They become your mentors, helping you to advance your research, earn the scholarship or fellowship you deserve, or apply to first-class institutions, including Brooklyn College, where you can pursue graduate and doctoral studies. No matter what subject you choose to study, you will be trained by some of the best minds in higher education who have made Brooklyn College their home.

Our Faculty obtains millions in research grants every year.

Our alumni are part of a special club.

They share a gritty determination to do well and to change the world.

They have been successful in nearly every field including science, the arts, business, and politics.

They have developed vaccines, run for president, and written groundbreaking novels. They have lead the New York City Public Schools, won Pulitzer Prizes, and starred in Academy-Award nominated films. They helm some of the top businesses in the world and teach the next generation with innovative approaches to learning.

They embrace a lifelong emotional and intellectual connection with the college and with each other. They are incredibly generous in giving back, most notably in their commitment to mentoring current students.
